Introduction of the fair

As one of the top 2 expositions in the world focusing on welding and cutting products and services, Beijing Essen Welding & Cutting Fair offers the most ideal platform for information exchange, contact establishment and market development. Since its premiere in 1987, the Fair has already been successfully presented 23 times. The visitors are mainly from the machinery manufacturing, pressure vessels, automobile manufacturing, railway locomotives, oil pipelines, shipbuilding, aviation and aerospace industrial sectors. Nearly hundreds of domestic and foreign professional journals, related exhibitions, websites have reported the fair.

Prominent buyers, engineers and top company management from all corners of the globe come to the show annually for knowledge of the most significant products as well as live demonstrations of the latest equipment for metal joining and cutting in increasingly sophisticated applications.

Beyond the exhibits displayed by nearly 1,000 exhibitors, the show also features a broad spectrum of seminars, workshops, forums and conferences covering all aspects of welding and cutting technology and technique applied in the industries of energy, food production, construction, machinery manufacturing etc.
